

Passionate about Park & Ride

Trinity Marler enjoys the “live, work, play” lifestyle while supporting clean commuting

Ever since the grand opening of the Centennial Hills Transit Center and Park & Ride, Trinity Marler has been taking full advantage of its services and encourages everyone he knows to park and ride too.

Why get excited about a new parking lot? Trinity shares that he now has a convenient place to leave his car while enjoying stress-free trips to work at MGM Grand on transit without having to deal with traffic congestion. Most importantly, he can “make a short trip to park his car and catch up on Facebook and e-mails” during his commute.

Prior to the lot available at Centennial Hills, Trinity experienced difficulty when searching for parking near transit stops to ride to work or meet with friends and carpool. After relocating to Centennial Hills, he finds himself using the Park & Ride lot frequently and considers it to be hassle-free.

When asked what he enjoys most about the Park & Ride lot, Trinity replied, “I enjoy the community’s new Park & Ride because I’m able to bike or even walk to the lot rather quickly.”

With his growing interest in “greener” commute modes, Trinity was happy to learn of the new Centennial Hills Park & Ride location and eager to “take part in something new and exciting, while saving money on gas.”

“The new Park & Ride lot is convenient, easily accessible and a great way to save money on gas.”

Even when he’s not riding the bus to work, Trinity meets friends at the Park & Ride lot and carpools to Town Square, a 23-mile drive from home. He is able to leave his car behind, saving him gas and letting him take advantage of HOV lanes.

In addition to using the Centennial Hills Park & Ride lot for work or a night on the town, Trinity looks forward to riding the C-Line to visit UNLV during Runnin’ Rebel basketball season.

RTC is partnering with retail stores across the Valley to help make carpooling easier for you and your friends! If Centennial Hills isn’t convenient for you, Club Ride can help you find your nearest Park & Ride location. Switch up your commute and give carpooling a try!
