RTC Transit System will Operate on a Sunday Schedule on Independence Day, July 4

The Regional Transportation Commission of Southern Nevada (RTC) will operate its transit system on a Sunday schedule this Independence Day holiday, Monday, July 4, 2011. The Sunday schedule will be implemented due to traditionally lower ridership and less traffic on this day.

The Sunday schedules for all RTC transit routes are available at www.rtcnv.com or in the RTC's Transit Guide. Riders with questions can also call the RTC's Customer Service line at 702.228.RIDE (7433).

RTC Transit will operate Sunday service on the following holidays:

Independence Day, July 4, 2011

Labor Day, September 5, 2011

Thanksgiving Day, November 24, 2011

The day after Christmas Day, December 26, 2011

The day after New Year's Day, January 2, 2012

RTC Transit will operate Saturday service on the following holidays:

Veterans Day, November 11, 2011

The day after Thanksgiving Day, November 25, 2011

Christmas Eve, December 24, 2011

Martin L. King Day, January 16, 2012

President's Day, February 20, 2012

The RTC is the transit authority, transportation planning agency and regional traffic management agency for Southern Nevada. The RTC's vision is to provide a safe, convenient and effective regional transportation system that enhances mobility and air quality for citizens and visitors. The RTC encourages residents and visitors to use alternate commute modes to help reduce traffic congestion, clean the air and improve the quality of life in Southern Nevada. RTC Transit service carried nearly 55 million passengers last year. The system is one of the most efficient transit systems in the nation. For more information, visit www.rtcnv.com.
