RTC invites students to submit artwork to celebrate Earth Day Winning design will be seen on valley streets on an RTC transit vehicle

In recognition of Earth Day in April, the Regional Transportation Commission of Southern Nevada (RTC) is again inviting all local sixth through twelfth grade students to submit artwork that celebrates Earth Day and the RTC's sustainability initiative, "quicker, cleaner, greener."

Student artists are encouraged to submit artwork that highlights Earth Day and the RTC's sustainable initiative "quicker, cleaner, greener" with images of transit, carpooling, bicycling and walking.

The top two winners will be featured on the outside of a RTC transit vehicle for up to one year. The winning artwork will be unveiled at a special event hosted by the RTC on Thursday, April 19.

Artwork must be unique, colorful and submitted in a horizontal format on 11" x 17" paper. Entries in black and white or using photography or glitter will not be accepted. Markers, colored pencils and paint are acceptable media.

The deadline for entry is Wednesday, March 14 at 5 p.m. All artwork should be delivered to the RTC Administrative Offices, 600 South Grand Central Parkway, Suite 350, Las Vegas, Nev., 89106, attention: Aileen Pastor.

Full entry details can be found at rtcsnv.com. For more information, contact Aileen Pastor at pastora@rtcsnv.com or 702-676-1735.

The RTC is the transit authority, transportation planning agency and regional traffic management agency for Southern Nevada. The RTC's vision is to provide a safe, convenient and effective regional transportation system that enhances mobility and air quality for citizens and visitors. The RTC encourages residents and visitors to use alternate commute modes to help reduce traffic congestion, clean the air and improve the quality of life in Southern Nevada.
